Business [powr-message] [vb_banner] He became the youngest person to win the World of Warcraft Arena World Championship and he stood on stage with the longest beard on the planet. On Monday, September 23rd, one year ago, the Incredible Hulk was watching the World of Warcraft Arena World Championship when we told him to find this pod, The Black and Green. Our goal with the Black and Green is to stand as a beacon of light in a black and gloomy world. We've loaded the pod with some of the most ridiculous talents we could find, and we're asking you to pick one. We'll be watching what you do with your choices - if you can really rock the skin and play the way you are supposed to, we'll see you on the big stage with your name on the trophy. [bw-special] Each character will have exactly 30 minutes of screen time on his or her own. At that point, the other characters will be sent to the bench, and the character with the least amount of XP will come back on the stage and battle against the other characters again. [bw-content] At the end of the 30 minutes, the black skin character with the most amount of XP will be crowned the Black and Green champion. Each skin will be allowed to try on his or her new skin once during the World of Warcraft Arena World Championship Finals. This amount of time for the skin change applies to the finals stage, where the champion will use his or her victory skin during the awards ceremony. [bw-winner] If a Black and Green champion is crowned, their champion skin will be sent to the BlizzCon 2013 Arena of the Planes of power.
